Introducing the Tour Director Ferrell Jenkins

Ferrell Jenkins has been conducting tours of the Bible Lands for Christians since 1967. He served as chairman of Biblical Studies at Florida College, Temple Terrace, Florida (1991-2001). He continues to conduct special lecture series, and is author of several books. He is an active member of several scholarly societies including the Near East Archaeological Society, Society of Biblical Literature and the Evangelical Theological Society. In 1980 he served on the institutional staff for the archaeological excavations at Lachish. His biographical sketch appears in Who's Who in Religion, Who's Who in the World (17th edition 2000), Who's Who Among America's Teachers (1996), and Who's Who in Biblical Studies and Archaeology.

Jenkins frequently presents illustrated lectures on Bible Lands and Customs and on Archaeology and the Bible. His knowledge of the Bible, Bible lands and Biblical Archaeology, along with his expertise in arranging and directing tours, will make the Bible come alive for you.

May 5 – Depart USA

Late afternoon departure from John F. Kennedy International Airport in New York. We will be using the non-stop flight on Delta Airlines to Istanbul, Turkey.

May 6 – Arrive Ankara

After clearing customs in Istanbul we will take the short flight to Ankara, capital of the modern Turkish Republic since 1923. Ankara is Turkey's second largest city with a population nearing 5 million inhabitants. In Roman times the city was known as Ancyra. The area is famous for the Angora goat from which we get mohair. Overnight in Ankara.

May 7 – Ankara – Hittite Region

Travel east for a full day excursion to Hittite sites of Hattusas (now Bogazkale) and the open air sanctuary of Yazilikaya where the Hittite gods are depicted in relief on the rock.

If time permits we will stop at Alacahuyuk which has a special place in the history of Anatolian art. During Old Testament days Turkey was the home of the ancient Hittites, once thought by critics of the Bible to be an example of the inaccuracy of the Bible. In 1906 archaeologists began to uncover the Hittite civilization at Bogazkoy (now Bogazkale).

The Hittites had numerous contacts with the people of the Bible (Josh. 1:4; Judges 1:26; 1 Kings 10:29; 11:1; 2 Kings 7:6). See National Geographic, July, 1977). Return to Ankara for overnight.

May 8 – Ankara – Cappadocia

Morning visit of Ankara. In addition to some of the highlights of the modern city, we will visit the Temple of Augustus and the priceless collection of Hittite artifacts in the Museum of Anatolian Civilizations.

Afternoon departure for Cappadocia. Peter's letters were addressed to Christians living in Cappadocia (1 Peter 1:1). In the centuries after New Testament times many Christians settled in this volcanic region of perhaps 50,000 cones. Hundreds of churches and numerous villages (such as Urgup and Goreme) were cut into these strange looking formations. Some apartment buildings are as much as 16 stories high. Subterranean cities (such as Kaymakli and Derinkuyu) downward for 8 to 10 levels. (See National Geographic, Jan., 1958; July, 1970). We have booked rooms for two nights at the Tafoni Evleri, cave hotel, in Cappadocia.

May 9 – Cappadocia Region

Full day visit of the lunar-like Cappadocian countryside including, as time permits, Goreme, Uchisar, Pasabag Valley, the village of Ortahisar, and one of the underground cities (Kaymakli or Derinkuyu).

John Freely describes the region this way: “Most of this part of Cappadocia is covered with a deep layer of tufa, a soft stone of solidified mud, ash and lava which once poured down from the now extinct volcanoes on Hasan Dagi and Eriçiyes Dagi, the two great mountain peaks of Cappadocia. In the eons since then the rivers of the region have scoured canyons, gorges, valleys and gulleys through the soft and porous stone, and the elements have eroded it into fantastic crags, folds, turrets, pyramids, spires, needles, stalagmites, and cones, creating a vast outdoor display of stone sculptures in an incredible variety of shapes and colours” (The Companion Guide to Turkey, 238).

Cappadocians were present in Jerusalem on Pentecost (Acts 2:9). Overnight in the cave hotel.

May 10 – Cappadocia – Cilician Gates Antakya (Antioch)

As we leave Cappadocia, depart for a long day of travel through fantastic scenery, to Antakya (biblical Antioch of Syria). We will descend through the famous Cilician Gates, the pass through the Taurus Mountains. This pass was used by famous rulers such as Xerxes, Darius, Cyrus, and Alexander the Great. This route is likely the one taken by Paul and Silas on the second journey (Acts 15:46–15:1).

Turning south along the Mediterranean we pass the plain of Issus where the armies of Alexander and Darius fought in 333 B.C. Continue south to Iskenderun (Turkish word for Alexander) which was founded by Alexander the Great. It was along this land bridge that many ancient powers, Hittites, Macedonians, Romans, and Crusaders, made their way to ancient Canaan (Israel, Palestine). Overnight in Antakya.

May 11 – Antakya (Antioch) – Seleucia

Opportunity for worship. Antioch of Syria on the Orontes River was founded by Seleucus I Nicator in 300 B.C. Antioch became a Roman city in 64 B.C. and capital of the new province of Syria. It became the third largest city of the Roman Empire after Rome and Alexandria. After Jerusalem, Antioch was the second great center of Christianity in New Testament times and where the disciples of Christ were first called Christians (Acts 11:19-30; 13:1-3; 14:26-28; 15:1-41; 18:22-23; Gal. 2).

Tour Highlights

- Roundtrip Airfare from JFK International Airport in New York.
- Price includes air taxes, surcharges & tips.
- Accommodations at first class hotels. Breakfast and dinner daily.
- Private motor coach and comprehensive sightseeing with English speaking guides.
- All hotel service charges and local taxes.
- Automatic $100,000 flight insurance policy for each Nawas-ticketed passenger (subject to policy terms and limitations).

The Cave Church of St. Peter (currently closed) honors Peter’s visit to the city (Gal. 2). From Antioch the great preaching journeys of Paul began. Visit the highlights of the city. The museum has a fine collection of 4th century A.D. mosaics from nearby Daphne.

We will visit the Port of Seleucia (Samandag) which was founded by Seleucus I Nicator in 300 B.C. and served as the seaport of Antioch. From Seleucia Barnabas and Saul sailed for Cyprus (Acts 13:4). We will see the tunnel built by the Roman emperors Vespasian and Titus to control flooding in the area. On the way to or from Seleucia we will visit the ruined Monastery of Simon Stylites. Overnight in Antakya.

May 12 – Antakya – The Plain of Antioch – Adana

This morning we drive about 12 miles to the Amuq Valley, also known as the Plain of Antioch, along the Orontes River to visit some of the archaeological sites. The site of Tell Ta’yinat provides information on the Early Iron Age (ca. 1200—900 B.C.). Two temples found there have a floor plan similar to that of Solomon’s Temple in Jerusalem. Time permitting we will stop at the Hittite site of Karatepe. Afternoon return to Adana.

May 13 – Tarsus

Today we visit Tarsus in Cilicia, the native home of the apostle Paul. Located near the Mediterranean about 30 miles below the Cilician Gates, Tarsus in Cilicia served as one of the great crossroads of history. Paul described it as “no insignificant city” (Acts 21:39; 9:11; 22:3). Cleopatra once came up the River Cydnus to Tarsus to meet Mark Antony. See the beautiful waterfalls on the outskirts of the city.

In the modern city see a gate called Cleopatra’s Gate (or St. Paul’s Gate), traditional sites associated with Paul, and the recent excavations of the Roman street, and the ruins of the Roman temple. Walk on a stretch of the ancient Roman road at Saglikli about 10 miles north of Tarsus. Return to Adana for overnight.

May 14 – Turquoise Coast – Derbe Lystra – Iconium

Depart for Konya along the beautiful Turquoise Coast passing Mersin, Pompeipolis, Corycos and Silifke. Drive north through another important pass in the Taurus Mountains. At the highest point (about 5000 feet above sea level) we will see a stand of Cedars of Lebanon. This is about the same altitude of the great Cedars in Lebanon. At Karaman we will make a short stop at the Museum to see one of the inscriptions which helped to identify the site of Derbe. We will visit the tell of Derbe (Kerti Huyuk; Acts 14:20-21; 16:1; 20:4). Continue to the mound of Lystra (Zordula) of Lycaonia near the village of Hatunsaray.

At Lystra the priest of Zeus wanted to offer a sacrifice to Paul and Barnabas (Acts 14:6-20). This was the home of Lois, Eunice, and young Timothy (Acts 16:1-4). These cities were in the province of Galatia (Gal. 1:2) in New Testament times. Time permitting (but not likely) we will visit Catalhoyuk, a fascinating Neolithic site of central Anatolia, to see the recent excavations carried out by an international team of archaeologists. The ruins at Catalhoyuk are said to preserve a civilization dating back to about 8000 B.C. Continue to Konya (Iconium) for overnight.

May 15 – Iconium – Pisidian Antioch – Antalya

Konya is the site of ancient Iconium, one of the oldest cities of Anatolia. Paul and Barnabas encountered much opposition in this city (Acts 14:1-6). Konya is best known today as the home of the Whirling Dervishes. Brief visit of Konya including the Archaeological Museum. The museum contains two inscribed stone monuments of interest. One mentions Derbe and the other mentions Lystra. No ruins of Iconium have been excavated. The legendary second century Acts of Paul, telling about a convert by the name of Thecla, takes its setting in Iconium.

We continue west to Yalvaç for a visit to the site of Pisidian Antioch. Yalvac is located on a plateau at an elevation of about 3600 feet above sea level. The nearby mound of Pisidian Antioch marks the spot where Paul presented a lesson summarizing the history of the Jewish nation, especially as it related to the Messianic promise (Acts 13:14-41). It was from this city that Paul announced that he would turn to the Gentiles (13:44-52). We will plan a short stop at the archaeological museum in Yalvaç. Continue through the beautiful mountains and valleys, and past Lake Egridir, to the Pamphylian coast to Antalya (Attalia) for overnight.

May 16 – Antalya – Perga

Visit historic ruins of ancient Pamphylia: Antalya (biblical Attalia, Acts 14:25) and Perge. Antalya is the modern name for Attalia which served as the port of entry from Egypt and Syria to the interior of Asia. From here Paul sailed back to Antioch (Acts 14:25). Our visit will include the harbor, Hadrian's Gate, and the Archaeological Museum.

Impressive Hellenistic and Roman ruins await us at Perge, ancient Perga in Pamphylia. This is where Paul, Barnabas, and John Mark arrived in Pamphylia. Here John Mark turned back (Acts 13:13-14; 15:37-39). On his return, Paul spent some time preaching here (Acts 14:25). Overnight in Antalya.

May 17 – Antalya – Istanbul

Early morning flight to Istanbul (formerly known as Constantinople), where Europe meets Asia. A short visit to the Grand Bazaar, made up of 4,000 little shops, gives you a chance to bargain for a nice souvenir to take back home. Enjoy a boat ride along the Bosphorus, vital waterway linking the Black Sea to the Mediterranean Sea. Overnight in Istanbul.

May 18 – Istanbul

Opportunity for worship. A full day of sightseeing of Istanbul including the Blue Mosque, Basilica of St. Sophia, and Topkapi Palace with its priceless jewels. Visit the Istanbul Archaeological Museum which houses numerous discoveries of biblical interest. Overnight in Istanbul.

May 19 – Istanbul – USA

This morning we depart for home with the realization that we have traversed the territory of the ancient rulers and civilizations. This is where Paul and Peter, two great apostles of Christ, labored. The book of Acts, Paul's epistle to the Galatians, and the epistles of 1 and 2 Peter will take on renewed meaning for us. Church history should become more interesting.

General Conditions

RESERVATIONS, DEPOSITS and FINAL PAYMENT:

Reservations may be secured upon payment of a deposit of $450 per person. No reservation is considered firm until deposit has been received. Your initial deposit payment shall be deemed to be an acceptance of all the terms of our General Conditions. Space is limited and offered on a first-come basis. Final payment is due at Nawas Travel 100 days prior to departure date.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: A U.S.A. passport valid for 6 months after the return date of the trip is required to travel. It is the sole responsibility of the traveler to check their passport's expiration date. Non- U.S.A. citizens may require visas in addition to a valid passport. It is the sole responsibility of non-U.S.A. citizens (including green card holders) to ensure they have the required visas/travel documents for each country to be visited on their tour and for re-entry into the U.S.A. Visa fees (if any) are not included in the tour price.

THE TOUR PRICE INCLUDES:

AIR TRANSPORTATION: By any IATA/ARC air carrier or other scheduled jet carrier, in economy class, with flights and air routings at the discretion of the air carriers and Nawas based on non-refundable bulk group fares. Cancellations made after air tickets have been issued are subject to full cancellation penalties as imposed by the airlines. We strongly recommend all tour members retain both their ticket receipts and boarding passes as copies of same cannot be provided. Airline tickets must bear your first, middle and last name as it appears on your passport. Passengers must apply directly with the airline for frequent flyer mileage; awards are at the sole discretion of the airline. Nawas makes every effort to provide the lowest possible price on our group tours and therefore does not guarantee the most direct routing to/from your final destination. Nawas is not responsible if an airline cancels, reschedules or delays a flight for any reason. Nawas is not responsible for and will not provide any refund for portions of trips missed due to canceled, rescheduled or delayed flights by any carrier.

TAXES/FUEL SURCHARGES: US departure taxes, overseas airport taxes, overseas local government taxes, airline security fees/surcharges and fuel surcharges are included (taxes/surcharges current estimate is $370 per person).

SURFACE TRANSPORTATION: By deluxe motorcoach.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS: Accommodations at first class/select hotels based on two persons sharing a twin or double bedded room with private bath. Nawas cannot guarantee roommates. A person taking a single room (subject to availability) must pay a supplement of $800.

MEALS: Breakfast and dinner daily.

SIGHTSEEING: As specified in the itinerary using motorcoach transportation or other conveyances as required. Entrance fees and the services of local English-speaking guides or tour managers are included.

TRANSFERS: Assistance and transfers from airports to hotels and vice versa in private motorcoach.

SERVICE CHARGES, TAXES, & PORTERAGE: Service charges and taxes normally included in bills, government taxes on hotel bills in effect on July 30, 2013, taxes on sightseeing and excursion trips and portage at hotels of one normal size suitcase (maximum weight 50 lbs.) are included in the tour price.

FLIGHT INSURANCE: Automatic one hundred thousand dollars flight insurance policy for each Nawas-ticketed passenger, subject to policy terms and limitations.

DEVIATIONS: All deviation requests from the group itinerary must be received at Nawas in writing no later than 100 days prior to departure. A $100 non refundable fee per person will be charged on all deviations in addition to any extra airfare that may be incurred. Air deviations are subject to availability and restrictions as imposed by the airlines.

BAGGAGE: Airlines may now charge baggage fees for checked luggage on international/domestic flights based on the policy of each carrier. The maximum number of pieces of luggage, the weight allowance and baggage dimensions may also vary by airline from the USA to overseas destinations and beyond. Many carriers require that checked luggage in economy class not exceed 50 lbs with a combined length, width and height of 62 inches. Regulations vary for business/first class passengers. Airline policies regarding baggage are subject to change at any time without prior notice. It is the responsibility of each passenger to check with their airline prior to departure for baggage information, regulations and compliance. Please refer to your electronic airline ticket receipt once received with the final tour documents. Nawas is not responsible for additional fees imposed by air carriers regarding baggage. Due to space limitations on Nawas motorcoaches, Nawas can only allow one piece of luggage per person plus a carry-on bag with total dimensions of 45 inches which fits in the overhead bin or underneath the seat in front of you. Wheeled carry-on bags are not permitted due to limited motorcoach capacity. Nawas Travel accepts no responsibility for loss or damage to the tour members' baggage or personal belongings at any time. Baggage insurance is recommended and is available upon written request.

TRAVELERS REQUIRING SPECIAL ASSISTANCE:

Disabled travelers requiring special attention or care must advise NAWAS in writing at the time of reservation. A physically able companion must accompany any person who needs special assistance. Tour directors, guides, drivers or other tour, hotel or ship personnel are not able to provide such assistance. NAWAS is not responsible for any denial of services to the disabled participant by air carriers, cruise ships, hotels, restaurants or other independent suppliers. Certain countries/ destinations involve extensive walking. Be aware that outside the U.S. the Americans with Disabilities Act is not applicable and facilities for disabled individuals are limited. NAWAS is not responsible for any passenger requiring special medical equipment.

THE TOUR PRICE DOES NOT INCLUDE:

Passport fees, visa fees (if any), phone calls, valet/laundry service, wines, liquors, mineral water, after dinner coffee or tea, tips to escort, guides, drivers and waiters, sightseeing and other services not specifically mentioned, excess baggage and all other items of a purely personal nature.

CANCELLATIONS: Written cancellations received by Nawas Travel up to 100 days prior to departure, refunds will be made less a $200 per person cancellation fee. From 99 to 70 days prior to departure, written cancellations received by Nawas Travel are subject to a $400 per person cancellation fee. From 69 to 31 days prior to departure, written cancellations received by Nawas Travel are subject to a cancellation fee of 50% of the total tour price per person. From 30 days prior to departure, written cancellations received by Nawas Travel are subject to a 100% cancellation fee of the total tour price per person. No shows are subject to a 100% cancellation fee and reservations will be cancelled. Failure to receive final payment by the due date may result in the cancellation of your tour reservation and the forfeiture of your deposit. Airline tickets are not refundable once issued. No refunds will be given for any unused services while on tour.

We strongly recommend the purchase of trip cancellation insurance to allow for unexpected medical emergencies. Trip cancellation insurance is available upon written request.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The airfare used is based on non-refundable bulk group fares in effect on July 30, 2013. Airlines reserve the right to increase fares without prior notice. Tour members will be required to pay any airfare increases and fuel surcharges as imposed by the airlines prior to departure. Airlines require a minimum of 10 persons departing from the same gateway city.

Land costs are based on estimated 2014 tariffs, overseas government taxes and rates of exchange in effect on July 30, 2013 and a minimum of 20 or more participants. While we have made the best possible estimates of what we expect costs to be in 2014, we cannot guarantee actual prices, exchange rates and airfares. Any increases in land costs or airfare that may occur will be collected from each passenger prior to departure. We reserve the right to increase the cost of the tour consistent with normal increases should the group fall below 20 persons, or in the event of fluctuations in exchange rates. All prices are based on rates of exchange listed above and while every effort will be made to hold them firm, they are subject to change.

Please note that healthcare/medical costs outside the U.S.A. are not covered by Medicare and many private medical insurance plans. Please consult with your health insurance supplier to obtain the necessary health/medical coverage for overseas travel.
