– Our 81st Foreign Tour –

Photograph of the City of Jerusalem taken from the Mount of Olives.

On April 3, 2005, heavy clouds covered the city, then the sun broke through to reveal this beautiful view. This view of Jerusalem is one of the favorites with all travelers to the city.

Brief Daily Itinerary

Depart New York

Monday, April 15

Evening departure for Israel on Delta Airlines. Dinner and breakfast will be served on board plane in flight.

Tel Aviv – Joppa

Tuesday, April 16

Arrival in Israel and the Bible lands at the Ben Gurion International Airport at Lod (ancient Lydda in the Plain of Sharon). Brief visit of Joppa if time permits. From here the prophet Jonah set sail for Tarshish. Peter raised Dorcas and received instructions to go preach to the Gentiles (Acts 9-10). We will spend our first night along the beautiful Mediterranean.

Caesarea – Haifa – Mount Carmel Megiddo – Nazareth – Tiberias

Wednesday, April 17

Drive north to Caesarea, first century Roman capital and seaport. The gospel was first preached to the Gentiles here (Acts 10-11). Paul was imprisoned here for two years before departing for Rome (Acts 24:27; 27:1). See Crusader's city walls, Herod's palace, the harbor, the Roman theater, and the aqueducts. Further north we arrive at Haifa, Israel's second largest city, industrial center, and seaport. Visit Murakah, the site associated with Elijah and the prophets of Baal (1 Kings 18). From here we have a view over the valley of Megiddo. In the Valley of Jezreel (the Armageddon of Rev. 16:16) we come to Megiddo. Visit the model at the visitor's center, see ruins of the city including the gates and stables. Walk through the ancient water tunnel. We will make a brief stop in Nazareth, boyhood home of Jesus. One of the highlights here will be a visit to the Nazareth Village, a reconstructed first century village and farm. Heading toward Tiberias we pass Gath-hepher, the home of Jonah (2 Kings 14:25), and the traditional

Herod's
Palace at Caesarea
Maritima

Cana of Galilee (Jn. 2). For the next three nights we will stay at Tiberias on the Sea of Galilee.

Sea of Galilee Area

Thursday and Friday, April 18 – 19

Special Note: Because there are so many points of interest in the Galilee area we have added extra time here. Visit all points of interest around the Sea of Galilee including sites for feeding of the multitudes, Sermon on the Mount, Bethsaida (home of Philip, Andrew and Peter), Capernaum (see ruins of the ancient synagogue and the “house of Peter”), Chorazin and Magdala. Cross the Sea of Galilee by boat. See the Cove of the Sower. Visit the ancient Roman boat at Nof Ginosaur. Drive past Kursi, En Gev, and the new excavations at ancient Tiberias as time permits. See the Jordan River.

Golan Heights – Mount Hermon Caesarea Philippi – Dan – Hazor

We plan to visit sites north of the Sea of Galilee. Drive through the Golan Heights (biblical Bashan), where one of the cities of refuge was located (Josh. 20:8), to view Mount Hermon. Visit Baniyas (Caesarea Philippi), a major source of the Jordan River, where Jesus made the promise that He would build the church (Mt. 16). Visit Dan for a tour of the archaeological excavations and another source of the Jordan. Continue through the Hulah valley for a visit of Tel Hazor. Hazor was the head of the northern Canaanite kingdoms captured by Israel (Joshua 11). Several excavations have brought to light important things at Hazor.

Bethshan – Well of Harod – Jezreel Up to Jerusalem

Saturday, April 20

On Sunday there will be an opportunity for worship. Today we head south. Visit Bethshean, where the Philistines hung Saul’s body on the wall (1 Sam. 31). Bethshean was known as Scythopolis in New Testament times, and a city of the Decapolis. Stop at the Spring of Harod where Gideon chose his men (Jud. 7:1). See

Fisherman casting net on the Sea of Galilee

Mount Gilboa, Hill of Moreh, and Mount Tabor as we motor through the Valley of Jezreel. See the site of ancient Jezreel where King Ahab built a palace (1 Kings 21:1-2).

Driving south we pass Dothan (Gen. 37:17), and come to Sebaste, the hill of Samaria, which Omri bought, Ahab beautified and Herod the Great fortified. At Nablus, ancient Shechem, see Jacob’s well (Jn. 4), Mt. Gerizim and Mt. Ebal (where the blessings and curses of the Law were read, Josh. 8).

Special Note: If conditions do not permit traveling through Samaria in the West Bank we will drive through the Jordan Valley to Jericho. From there we continue “up to Jerusalem” the Golden City. It will be home for the next five nights and a part of our life from now on.

Jerusalem

Sunday, April 21

Visit the Mount of Olives, with its magnificent panorama of the Old Walled City of Jerusalem. Excellent place for photographs from the Mount of Ascension (Acts 1:9). Pause in the Garden of Gethsemane. Continue to the City of David, Kidron Valley, Pool of Siloam and Hezekiah’s tunnel. If time permits we will visit the traditional house of Caiaphas where Peter denied Christ. We will visit the Garden Tomb and the beautiful Garden at Gordon’s Calvary.

One afternoon we will drive to Bethlehem where we will visit the Church of Nativity, the Grotto of Jerome and the Shepherd’s fields. If time permits we will try to go to the Herodium where it is thought that Herod’s tomb was found in 2007. A visit to the Second Temple Model of Jerusalem from the time of Christ and to the Shrine of the Book to see the Dead Sea Scrolls complete the day’s activities.

Jericho – Dead Sea – Qumran – Masada

Monday, April 22

Today we descend through the wilderness of Judea to Jericho (Josh. 2:1–6:20) where the walls fell down. Visit Qumran where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found. Driving south along the Dead Sea we pass Ein Gedi where David hid from Saul (1 Sam. 24), and come to Masada, Herod's rock fortress which overlooks the Dead Sea. Here, in A.D. 73, 960 Jews took their own lives rather than submit to the yoke of Rome. Return to Jerusalem for overnight.

Cave 4 at Qumran where some of the Dead Sea Scrolls were found.

Jerusalem

Tuesday, April 23

One morning we will walk through the Old City. We will visit the Western Wall and as much of the temple mount area as time and conditions permit. We often hear that the Temple Mount area is important to Jews because it is believed to be where Abraham offered Isaac, and where the temple stood. It is sacred to Islam because they hold that Mohammed took his flight into heaven from this spot. In this area the first gospel sermon was preached by Peter (Acts 2). According to the early chapters of Acts, many of the activities of the early church took place in this area.

Visit the Pool of Bethesda, the Ecce Homo Arch, Pilate's Judgment Hall (once thought to be the Pavement of John 19:13), Via Dolorosa, Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and other sacred sites. A walk through the market area of the city is an unbelievable experience. The visit of Jerusalem will include the Cardo and other recent excavations in the Jewish Quarter (the Burnt House, the Herodian Mansion).

We will visit the recent excavations showing the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in A.D. 70, and the steps leading up to the Temple in the time of Christ.

Jerusalem

Wednesday, April 24

Jerusalem is a unique city and visits to various sites require much planning. Moslem sites are difficult to visit on Friday; Jewish sites are difficult to visit on Saturday; Christian sites are difficult to visit on Sunday. Our guide knows how to make the most of our time as we visit the important sites. We will use some of the time today to visit sites we have been unable to visit on the previous days in Jerusalem.

Return to the U.S.A.

Thursday, April 25

Today we will have a later departure from the hotel and begin our way to the airport for the evening flight. There is much to see as we drive through the Shephelah of Israel to sites such as Beth-Shemesh, the Valley of Aijalon, Azekah, valley of Elah, Gath, Lachish, and the coastal plain. We will have dinner at a restaurant on the Sea.

This evening we depart for home carrying with us the wonderful memories of having walked in the footsteps of the patriarchs, prophets, Jesus, the Apostles, and early Christians. Our Bible reading will have more meaning from now on, and our "world" will be a great deal larger.
